

FIRST SHIFT

JUSTICE PROJECT

Remember the Mothers of First Shift Justice Project on Giving Tuesday, December 1st!

Because of you, First Shift mothers:

- Stand up against workplace discrimination;
- Work safely during pregnancy;
- Take leave after childbirth without fear of job loss
- Breastfeed their babies longer and with dignity.

Because of you, the Smithsonian, which employs over 6,000 people, now has a policy to provide appropriate accommodations to its breastfeeding employees!

Please include First Shift in your Giving Tuesday plans!

Medical Provider Trainings: Now medical providers can sign up for a 15-minute training about D.C.'s new pregnancy accommodation law on our website! Check it out here. We have also added new materials, including a template note, tips for writing effective pregnancy accommodations notes and a handy link to a fabulous new website recently launched by the Center for Worklife Law, www.pregnantatwork.org. Spread the word!
